Be a wise information-seeker during the COVID-19 pandemic
Panhandle total: 387, Active: 74, Recovered: 308, Deaths: 5

Information is easily shareable and clickable nowadays but seeking reliable information from neutral and scientifically based sources is critical now more than ever. Data, statistics, and research is readily available at our fingertips but also can be false or inaccurate information intended to deceive the reader and create fear.

Do not fall victim to misinformation, there are many fact-checker websites or sources intended to dispel any misinformation and myths. Being a wise information-seeker will help keep you informed on important topics and a proactive citizen during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Unified Command confirms thirteen more cases of COVID-19 in the Panhandle since last Friday’s report:
